Summary: Jack was a kid found buried in the snow and soon after adopted by the Benett family when diagnosed with amnesia one year ago . Now , a few strange kids from all over the world transfer to his school with secrets and attitudes . Looks like things just became more fun . Frostbite and Hiccstrid .Explanation given inside . Not completely AU , just a slightly tweaked storyline.

1. Prologue : Httyd

Berk is an island among many islands . The people bathe less than the animals , breastplates are recycled into helmets and everyone's protecting a common secret , their pets...dragons.

>...No really, they have pet dragons . I'm not kidding ( who else is incredibly jealous ?).
Currently two dragons , one black and scaly and another with blue scales and spikes were shooting across the sky over the water , dodging random tall cliffs arising from the water . A boy with messy brown hair and green eyes had a wide grin as he rode the black night fury . He looked behind to see a blond girl with her hair in a braid and blue eyes with a smile on her face as she rode the deadly nadder . Her smile morphed into a mischievous grin. His eyes widened and he twisted enough to fly a loop and dodge the spikes but before he regained his upright position , the nadder shot past him.

>"ASTRID ,DID YOU JUST GET STORMFLY TO THROW SPIKES AT ME?"
>"DON'T BLAME ME ,HICCUP .IT WAS HER IDEA..."

>She shouted but he could hear the mirth in her voice .
>"...BUT I APPROVE."

>He shook his head , smile still present . He knew those spikes wouldn't have hit him and that she purposely waited till he looked back before shooting ...not that she would ever admit it. That was just who she was.
>"Let's go , bud."

>And being the best dragon-rider was who he was.With a grunt of approval from the night fury, he turned their direction towards an island with huge cliffs ,rock bridges and ledges . It was pretty much an obstacle course for dragons , only very hard .

>Astrid saw his change in course and followed him with a grin . Both the dragons entered the range , twisting and turning , avoiding the mountains and cliffs , ducking over ,under and around the rock formations. Neither slowed down and both were completely exalted .They had an understanding between each other , Hiccup would do the more complicated and difficult routes and Astrid would stay within her capabilities and Hiccup would never mention this fact to anyone ,... including her . They took an unfamiliar twist , hitting the sky when they saw the trees , but they came too close to the lower middle of a large rock bridge . Being more agile and faster , Hiccup angled the setup and his dragon ,Toothless shot straight up , barely making it past the edge . Up in the air , he steadied Toothless before noticing that there was no dragon behind them. He shot towards the water . Panic began to arise in his chest."ASTRID?ASTRID , WHERE ARE ..."

>Before he could reach halfway across the bridge , the waters shoted up and a blue blur shot out of it . The nadder's wings shot open and with a heavy splash , the dragon shot past the night fury , it's rider laughing as she saw Hiccup's face . Her face immediately extinguished the panic ."DON'T UNDERESTIMATE ME , HICCUP."

>Hiccup whispered ."Never."

>Then he guided Toothless into a U-turn and followed the nadder up to the sky . He flew next to the nadder ,quickly looking over the dragon and it's rider for any injuries . But as he looked at Astrid as she was removing her hairband and unbraided her hair , her golden locks flying behind her , the sunlight highlighting her figure and the water-drops shinning on her body , ...Wow. She definitely looked ...wow.Astrid turned her head to see him gawking at her . An unnatural shyness formed in her , but like the true viking she was , she ignored it and shouted.

>"WHAT?"That broke Hiccup out of his stupor.

>"NO , ...I...WHY'D YOU? ...YOUR HAIR...""OH!JUST LETTING IT DRY ."

>"OH!....KAY!....UM! ...THE SUN'S GOING DOWN ."Astrid turned to see that the sun was indeed retiring for the day .

>"WE SHOULD GET BACK . YOUR DAD SAID HE WANTED TO TALK TO US AT DINNER ..."She said as she changed her course towards the island whispering 'Time to go home , girl' to her dragon ,Hiccup automatically followed , his legs reflexively making the necessary action and saying 'Let's head back , bud.' to his best friend.

>"Yeah , he did say ...WAIT , US ? YOU'RE COMING FOR DINNER ?"Astrid rolled her eyes as the boy who had easily caught up with her .

>"YEAH, YOUR DAD DIDN'T TELL YOU?""NO , HE JUST SAID WE NEEDED TO 'TALK'. I'VE BEEN PREPARING MYSELF FOR ANOTHER LECTURE FOR THE WHOLE DAY. "

>"WELL , LET'S TALK ABOUT IT AFTER WE LAND ."Hiccup smiled as they flew together in comfortable silence , just flying with their dragons , touching the clouds , gliding over the water and just enjoying the time with their dragons . Hiccup went at his own pace and Astrid at hers . It never gets old . Far too soon for either of their liking , they reached the village . They decided to land at Astrid's place and leave Stormfly there before walking to the chief's house . Astrid petted her dragon and went with Hiccup .Toothless fell in step with them beside Hiccup . Hiccup slowly petted Toothless as they walked.

>"So , what do you think it's about ? Maybe , it's got something to do with those new outsiders , the ones who brought those weird new books .""Weird ? those books were awesome. So much information , I hardly understood most of it . But 'electricity','friction',...the physics section helped me with calculating the aerodynamics of the dragons ...and Planes! Wow. I never knew we were so ...kept in the dark about these..inventions."

>"I like the saddles that you invented better than any of those things given in those books."She stated bluntly.A slight blush formed on his cheek , then he remembered the stunt.

>"Why didn't you ever show me that underwater diving trick you and Stormfly pulled off? I almost had a heart-attack."She gently elbowed him with a fake insulted look.

>"Heart-attack? Me and Stormfly are tough . You should have known we were fine..""Doesn't stop me from worrying ..."

>He quietly mumbled rubbing his arm before placing his hand back on Toothless."...and you didn't answer my question. Why didn't you tell me?"

>"I had no reason to.""I thought we had an unspoken agreement that any new stunts created would be...oh!"

>Astrid refused to make eye-contact with him as he figured out the reason for her silence . They would share any tricks they thought of , but He couldn't do this trick , Toothless couldn't do it . His tail would be soaked and they wouldn't be able to fly back up . That and his leg ... She didn't want to upset him. If it weren't for the bridge , she probably would have kept it a secret for good."...ah, so how long ago did you learn it anyway."

>She took a peek at his face and on seeing the understanding smile on it ,let relief take her as she answered."A few weeks . Stormfly wanted to catch fish and I wanted to swim . So I dived in the ocean..."

>Hiccup's eyes widened. That was some serious trust to dive into the ocean."...after she was full , she dived after me and floated . I got on her and we left . Later , whenever I wanted a quick dip , I just...you know..."

>"Hmm...I'm not too fond of getting wet . I prefer staying in the air."Astrid gave a teasing smile .

>"Says the guy who takes who takes more baths than all the villagers combined.""Okay , that is a complete exaggeration and you try working in the forge all day...It's hot ...and Sweaty ..."

>Astrid gave a short laugh.

"Gobber doesn't seem to mind it .."

"Yeah , but he's ...he's ..._Gobber_. "

Astrid let out a small chuckle.

>"So what about my question?""Huh?"

>"what do you think the joint dinner is about ?""Who knows ? Probably something about the dragons since I'm ..."

>"Don't finished that sentence , or I'll punch you."Hiccup looked at her surprised.

>"W...why?""I'm sick of you putting yourself down . There's more to you than just the dragons ."

>She said and with such sincerity that he almost believed her but instead snorted."Yeah , right . Like what?"

>"You're smart , the axe you made me is the best I've ever seen , funny , creative ,... "Hiccup's face grew more and more red with every word and finally he clamped her mouth with his spare hand .

>"Alright, I get it."
Her eyes widened but she noticed his red face as he looked straight at the ground and a smile formed on her face . With a quick movement she swatted off his hand and lightly punched his shoulder successively gaining an 'ouch'.

>"That's for putting yourself down..."
He rolled his eyes and faced her.

>"Why must you always..."
"HICCUP! ASTRID !YOU HAVE ARRIVED! GOOD ! COME ON IN! FOOD READY."*bang*

>They both turned to see their chief get off his dragon and head to the house , shouting the whole way before entering and slamming the door behind him . Woah, How did they get here so fast?
"Well, you go on ahead , Astrid . I'll just leave Toothless in my room . He doesn't need to suffer with us."

>"As optimistic as always , Hiccup."
"I try."

>With that he headed to his house .
"Hiccup?..."

>He turned to see Astrid looking at him with an unreadable expression
. "...what are we?"

>His eyes widened and nervousness began to choke him . What were they ? Anything she wanted them to be . But she would never...no ,she was a viking and he was just....a hiccup .
"We're ...friends , right? You know , if you want us to be and well...I .."

>A flicker of disappointment and sadness crossed her eyes , or did he imagine it , before a smile formed on her face and she walked up to him and pulled him by his shirt and kissed him...on the cheek
. "...and that's for being my special friend."

>She whispered in his ear before pushing away and walking into the house leaving a red-faced hero of Berk staring at nothing with a goofy grin on his face .
"HICCUP , GET IN HERE."

>"Wha...oh ...who?...I?...uh..., YEAH , DAD , COMING!"
He quickly entered the house and led Toothless to his room ,saying that he wouldn't want to be there anyway . Toothless ,from past experiences agreed and stayed , not minding the lack of dinner due to the large amount of fish he had consumed during the flight with his owner and the girl and her nadder. Hiccup went to the dining table after splashing himself with cold water (it wiped away the blush but not the grin).

>"Son, take a seat ." Hiccup threw a suspicious glance at the occupants of the table .Gobber, his dad, Astrid , Astrid's dad , and the two travellers who brought the study books to the island were there too. He took his seat between Astrid and his dad and opposite the two outsiders.

>Hiccup and Astrid shared a look. Astrid , haughty and Hiccup , mild amusement.
'_Told you it was about the outsiders.'

>'Yeah, yeah, no need to rub it in'

>What? Close friends can talk with their eyes.
"So ,these are the two kids ,then?"

>Asked one of the outsiders . He had blond hair which was trimmed and combed and yellow eyes. Something which clearly indicates that he's not from around here. Astrid's father , spoke with pride.
"Yes, this here is my daughter , Astrid . She has read most of your books ...and understood them too."

>Hiccup turned to Astrid with a surprised expression . Didn't she say that they were 'weird'?. Astrid refused to meet his gaze , choosing to ignore his presence instead . Hiccup immediately turned back to blond guy . Being ignored by Astrid was something he did not want to experience ever again. Astrid gave a polite nod to the outsider. His dad decided to speak next .

>"And this here is my boy, Hiccup . He may not look like much , actually , like nothing at all but he very smart ..."  Hiccup rolled his eyes and mumbled ...

>"Feeling the love , dad..."  ...which caused Astrid to crack a grin and almost made being insult/compliment-ed worth it.
>"...he read all your books , keeps talking about elect-something , aero-something and make lightning from metal...gave me shock."  "I told you not to touch it."
>He complained."Blah , who say I complaining ? It was very ...exciting."
>The other outsider , he had black hair combed to the back ,green eyes and tan skin, seemed to be surprised and looked at me with interest ,...which was Very unnerving . Hiccup fidgeted a bit under his gaze . They never liked that guy , he seemed weird but that other guy guy seemed okay enough . He didn't want to judge though ."Ya created electricity ?..._Here_?"
>Indignation grew in all the five vikings who were seated . But the blond man quickly interrupted ."Please do not be offended . He is naturally rude ..."
>Instead of being offended , the other guy just rolled his eyes ."...now,we have a proposition ..."
>Every viking at the table narrowed their eyes."...we would like to sponsor these two children for high-school ...in the main-land of America."

**_A.N:-_*

**_I seriously don't know why I'm writing this or even how long I'll continue . But recently , I've fallen back into the Httyd and Rotg fandom and I got an idea and started writing it . Whether or not I'll complete it ...is unknown . But I would like to mention that the story is basically a highschool fic and characters from tangled and brave will show up as well . Though it's mainly Rotg and Httyd._**

**_It's post Httyd universe ,post-tangled,post-brave ( Merida is a princess in a remote kingdom separated by forest )and pre-Rotg with slight changes in Toothiana's past story (Read it in wikipedia ) ,but characters are same._**

**_I wrote as if Berk is one primitive island among many out in the ocean._**

**_PLEASE REVIEW . I WOULD SERIOUSLY APPRECIATE IT._**

2. Prologue : Rotg

**_This story might be easier understood if you head toothiana's backstory first . there are some tweaks here but it would help._**

It was a beautiful day . The sun was shining , the birds were singing...or...chirping , to be precise and...what else?...
>"YOU ALREADY SAID OKAY." "I JUST FAIL TO UNDERSTAND THE ALLURE OF SUCH A SITUATION."
>"WELL, YOU DON'T HAVE TO UNDERSTAND , IT'S SOMETHING I WANT TO DO

... .SAID. .""I DIDNOT PROPERLY THINK IT THROUGH."

>"IT TOOK THREE YEARS , THREE YEARS TO CONVINCE YOU AND ... ""I KNOW WHAT I SAID, OKAY..."

>"EXACTLY!"...Oh, yes ,and two half-hummingbird , half-woman(girl) fairies were arguing with (screaming at) each other and causing severe discomfort to the surrounding fairies who were giving looks of annoyance, amusement,worry and indifference as they carried on with their work . Each fairy was covered with feathers from neck to toe with a crown of feathers on their heads . They were on a floating platform , basically an island miles above the ground , hidden by the trees of a forest in Southeast Asia . The island was called Punjam Hy Loo or more commonly called The tooth palace. Hundreds of fairies went in and out of the palace , each carrying either a pouch of teeth or a pouch of coins. Suddenly a portal opened in mid air and a large sleigh led by a number of powerful reindeer came through it ,a large man with large white beard and white hair rode it and landed on the platform, shaking his head at the two bickering fairies.

>"What go on now?"The two fairies who were arguing (screaming) turned to the direction of the loud voice . The magenta eyes of the smaller of the two fairies widened before her lips simultaneously broke into a wide grin before launching herself into the large man and giving him a hug which he returned a merry chuckle.

>"NORTH! What are you doing here?""What question is that? You leave today ,no? I come see one last time."

>"Yes , about that..."Began the other fairy who also had a small smile on her face . She was identical to the smaller one in looks but had multicoloured eyes , one blue and one magenta and an older build and longer , more mature facial structure in comparison to the fairy in North's arms.

>"...I have doubts on whether this is ...a good idea . Surely you understand , North . Try to tell her.""NO, North , she said OKAY."

>The big man looked at the older fairy , taking in her worried expression and jittering flight and gave a small smile."What I think is that you not want little Tooth here to get hurt . Right?"

>Tooth's annoyance immediately faltered and she turned to face the older fairy with determined look."Auntie Rose , I'll be fine . I practised controlling my shifting in and out of human form, I learned All the text-books , passed the entrance-exam , bought an apartment , clothes ,...etc, North got me a fake ID and set me up with a foreign exchange programme so nobody will be suspicious if I act weird and...and...I ...I really,_really_ want to do this."

>The older fairy let out a sigh ,and gave a small smile."Why now, Toothiana ? Why now after all these Decades?"

>Tooth looked to the ground , as if the answer embarrassed her."Because...well.. I always wanted to go ...it looks really fun and the clothes are so colourful ...and now , they don't have all those restrictions for girls either, so..."

>"Okay..."Tooth looked up at the older fairy with disbelief and expectation.

>"I said okay...again."Tooth gave a huge grin before tackling her in a hug.

>"THANK YOU,THANK YOU,THANK YOU,THANK YOU..."Rose gave a small laugh. Tooth's happiness was always infectious . Everyone in the surrounding area was smiling as they watched the scene.

>"Just be careful, alright Tooth . They should never find out about...us."Tooth pulled away and gave her a smile.

>"Don't worry , Auntie Rose... I'll be careful and if anything bad happens , I'll definitely come straight to you.""Thank you , sweetie. I almost lost you once ...I just..."

>"You won't loose me..."Tooth looked at her with such sincerity that her worries disappeared . Then suddenly, Tooth's eyes widened .

>"WAIT A SEC...""What is it ,Tooth?"

>Rose asked in alarm , North leaned forward too."...Oh, don't worry , I just forgot to pack something very important . I'll just go get it ...oh , I also have to change...BE RIGHT BACK."

>And with that she shot into the sky heading towards her quarters leaving the others blinking until North finally gave a small chuckle."Ah, she always so ...what they say?...yes, spontaneous ."

>"She's my responsibility , North."He placed his hand on her shoulder in reassurance.

>"Rashmi ask you to watch over her, ...not lock her up.""I know,But the world is so ...corrupting ,...especially now."

>"Rose , world always have good and bad. Tooth is good girl . She will be fine. She not stupid... She old enough to know right from wrong."Rose chuckled.

>"North, she's older than you."North blinked .

>"Ah , yes. Sometimes, I forget that."*step*,*step*

>They turned their head to the unfamiliar sound of footsteps to come face to face with a teenage girl with tan skin , disproportionate dark brown hair ending a little below her shoulders with a prominent long lock of yellow hair in the middle and various other colours , mainly dark blue ,highlighting other strands . She was wearing a blue hoodie which hung loose on her body . It had light frost patterns on the end of the arms , edges of the hood , pocket and from the shoulder to the chest area. She also wore a short skirt with multicoloured flowers all over it and purple sandals .She ran towards them and came to an halt ."I'm back! Thought I should arrive in town in human form."

>Noticing the hoodie with a small smile , Rose asked."And how are you going to get to Burgess from here without wings?"

>Tooth looked at North expectantly . North laughed ."The sleigh it is!"

>He shouted as he turned and Tooth let out a joyful shout before following North to the sleigh and shouting and receiving good-byes and well-wishes to and from the other fairies. Rose rolled her eyes before mumbling under her breath ."Everybody loves the sleigh."

>And as Tooth boarded the sleigh , her hands clutching the precious hoodie that she wore , she slowly whispered what was happening with a wide smile on her face , as if it was just a dream that was going to disappear when she wakes up."I'm going to high-school."

Meanwhile in Burgess:-

"So , Jack . Few more days before school reopens.."

>The brown-haired boy rolled his brown eyes at the older woman whom he considered family (though he still couldn't call him mom ) and let out a groan before flopping on the dinning table ."Don't remind me . Summer is hot , but school is worse."

>"Really, Jack . I like school."Piped another brown-haired boy , the woman's birth-son , Jamie .

>"I don't ."Jack mumbled , his face buried in his arms.

>The older woman let out a laugh at her boys . She noticed that Jack wasn't wearing his usual blue hoodie . He begged her to buy it for him when he saw it at the store. Said it looked familiar somehow.Jamie found Jack topless and half-buried in the snow over a year ago . When he woke up , he had amnesia and only remembered his name , Jackson overland. As his vital functions and mental stability were both good , he didn't need to stay in the the hospital for long but there was no record of him and his name never showed up in missing persons either . So after much pleading by both her children , she had obtained temporary guardianship over Jack until he is claimed by his parents or becomes a legal adult. After a year , he's basically become a part of the family and is kind of considers himself responsible for Jamie and his sister Sophie while their dad was working over-seas.

>"I hear that they're having some foreign exchange programme , maybe you'll meet some interesting people."Jamie got excited.

>"Really , Jack . Foreigners , really . Ohhh...maybe a tribal villager or...""Woah, boy...foreign or not , they're just people and auntie, it's not an 'exchange'. The school's been chosen as the dump site for a bunch of over-sea kids ...some of whom , according to the princi are 'special'. Whatever that means ."

>Mrs. Bennett placed the dinner on the table before taking a seat herself ."Well , try to make some friends your own age, okay Jack. They may not be so bad ."

>Jack just sighed ."Sure ,...if they're any fun."

3. Httyd : new land

And so here they were . The village gave them a farewell banquet ...which ended with a traditional drunken fist-fight . The blond guy laughed at the scene while the dark guy just rolled his eyes , although he seemed a bit amused . Hiccup and Astrid were given instructions on how to behave and what to expect . Apparently , they use paper to buy stuff there ,drinking isn't allowed for people their age , they have machines for travel and weapons and fighting aren't allowed and will get them in trouble( Astrid almost changed her mind , but Hiccup's managed to convince her), they were given weird boxes with which they can talk to other people ( they showed them how to call in case they got arrested) and were told that they had to choose new clothes when they get there .

>After a tearful goodbye (figuratively speaking of course, vikings don't cry ...though Stoick came close when he realised no one was going to be there to manage Snotlout and the twins ), they were off .They went by boat for a distance and one night , as they were sleeping ...something ...shook them and as they woke up , the boat slammed onto the waters of the mainland . The blond guy had some glass ball in his hand and smiled at them .

>They walked across 'roads' , saw 'buildings' and 'cars' and the blond guy explained everything to them. Their mouths were open the whole time . They reached a forest like edge and walked along a dirt path until they reached a small house .It was perfect .

>It was a wooden house with a porch and a porch-swing ( which was a simple cushion like seat) . They gave them weird cards with their pictures and info on them and some green paper , showed them around the house and forest ( there were two separate rooms ,one for each) . The forest had a lake and Toothless and Stormfly immediately became comfortable . After a day of touring and explaining how things will go , they went back to the house , the back door and shed were big enough for the dragons and separated by trees . The house was practically lodged into the tree line .The blond guy looked at the both of them with a smile . They were seated at the 'dinning table' while 'Phil' , who was apparently our cook , was 'cooking' our dinner . Dude was hairy , really hairy ...and he doesn't talk , just ...grunts.

>"So any questions ?"Hiccup and Astrid just stared at him , finally closing their mouths .

>"This ...well....um...""I don't think I can do this."

>Hiccup looked at Astrid , who was looking straight at the blond guy with seriousness ."Astrid , wha...?"

>"This place is so...peaceful ...and the people here are so ...quiet ...I....I....I don't think I can fit in here . I'm a viking , not a kid who puts stuff on her face and paints her nails and who knows what else the girls here do ."The blond guy just smiled as Hiccup turned to her.

>"Come on , Astrid . You don't have to change ...just...""Hiccup , you are a quiet guy with brains and you can find a way to deal with this ...place . I ... I'm violent , rude ...it's how I was raised"

>"It doesn't matter!""He's right ..."

>They both turned to face the blond guy ( I'm just gonna call him blondie)."...I told you others are also joining you , didn't I ? They are the same . They grew up in different cultures and one girl is from a culture similar to yours ..."

>Astrid raised an eyebrow ."Really?"

>"Yes , she is here with her mother... , so do not worry about being alone ..."Astrid flinched and Hiccup couldn't help but think it was because of more than just her pride . He could have sworn he saw a flash of pain in her eyes ...but why?

>"...but if you still wish to leave...""No , I'm fine . I just ..."

>She took in a small breath."...don't blame me if some jackass gets beaten up . "

>Blondie gave a nod and hiccup relaxed . He actually felt excited . Only recently was he not alone , so he was more adaptable to this change , but nonetheless , he did want Astrid with him . It was good to have someone you know with you during such a change . He knew of course , that it was harder for her , since she was a true viking , through and through .They ate dinner and Blondie left and so did 'Phil' . Hiccup went to Astrid's room after feeding Toothless .

>"Astrid?"The door opened and she walked out . Her hair was wet and she was wearing 'pyjamas'. He wanted to try them too , they seemed comfy .

>"Yeah...just got out of the shower , it's nice . Stormfly knocked the fish basket out of my arms . I ended up reeking...""You don't have to stay if you don't to...we can leave ."

>Astrid looked up at him wide eyes before letting a small smile on her lips . She pulled him by his shirt and kissed him...on the cheek...again.Hiccup momentarily wondered if he had to nearly die again for her to kiss him on the lips .

>She pulled away with a sly smile as she took in his goofy grin."Go to sleep . We got school tomorrow ."

>Then she walked back in and closed the door leaving Hiccup outside.

Flashback:-

"...we would like to sponsor these two children for high-school ."

"WHAT? "

>"THAT IS CRAZY , WE , THEY NOT LIKE THOSE PEOPLE ON THE MAINLAND .""I CAN'T LEAVE TOOTHLESS ."

>"I'M NOT GOING WITHOUT STORMFLY ""WHAT DO YOU WISH TO GAIN FROM THIS? "

>" .Down ."The vikings grew quiet . There was a ...relaxing feeling in his voice.

>"These two children are interested in the developments in the modern world ...the mainland , correct?..."There was a tense silence.

>"...you need not accept ,but it is a good chance for your village to improve...plus , we have a arranged a boarding hostel of sorts . There , they and other children like them..."Hiccup interrupted .

>"Woah,woah,...wait . Other kids ...other vikings?""No , Hiccup. Other children of other cultures less advanced than the mainland's and have taken an interest in learning more. There is a compounds allocated for each of you . There is a forest behind the one allocated for you . There , you may keep your dragons so you don't have to part from them ."

"You ...you guys...know about..."

>The black haired man rolled his eyes ."Yes, we know about the dragons , though it is strange that an entire village can see them..."

>"What do you mean? Explain?" demanded Astrid."Dragons are considered myths among the mainland people , which you must know if you read our books ...that is because dragons can only be seen by people who believe in them."

>"What?...""...it means that even if you take your dragons with you , you must hide them ...and control them . Regular people who think they are myths would walk right through them ,but children with childish belief in dragons would be able to see them...so they cannot be allowed to roam freely or they would cause a panic."

>Nobody needed the reason for that to be explained to them."So, they ...they would...be invisible . "

>"Yes, that might come as a shock to the dragons , so only take them with you if you can guarantee that they will not lose control .""Stormfly would never hurt anyone for no reason .."

>"Toothless either...""Good ...but if you agree to this ,you will be agreeing to go a strange land with different cultures and behaviour . You can learn new things but you have to be careful . People there don't take violence as a good thing..."

>Hiccup noticed Astrid's eyes lower in sadness . He decided to ask her about it later."...so will you accept?"

>was the first to reply ."Well, the benefits are ...tempting ...and I'm quite sure Astrid can take care of herself no matter where she is , but ...to leave her home ...for how long ?"

>"Ay, I feel it do Hiccup some good to get out , he also good at being by himself ..but it is their decision and for how long?""Two years ..."

>Everyone's eyes shot up in disbelief."...but they can visit ...if they take their dragons , they can visit whenever they want...but they need to inform us first though."

>"But...the dragons...they'll be trapped ...and lonely...and I can't leave toothless alone here either.""The forest that I mentioned is vast...and quite dangerous . People don't normally go in there . There is a large lake which contains plenty of fish . They dragons will be fine as long as they don't cause any trouble and you can spend time with them when school is not in session ...though you do have to study ...and the rooms in the house are big enough for the dragons to be inside if needed."

>Astrid and Hiccup looked at each other . Everything was moving so fast but they were curious about this 'mainland'...and both of them had taken interest in the various things given and Hiccup usually worked at the chores and Astrid had chores and training , so, the dragons were used to being by themselves but...the dragons were more important, they couldn't sacrifice the dragon's freedom for curiosity . The decision was made."We're sorry ,but..."

>"You can drop out if you want .""What?"

>The blond guy waved his hand to the door with a smile as if he was pleased with what the two kids thought ."...if you feel that the dragons are being neglected , you can quit and fly back here the next day . It's fine ...but you still have to inform us before doing so. Please take a step outside and talk about it first ."

>Hiccup and Astrid looked to their dads and they nodded , so the two young vikings got up and left , Astrid left the room and headed straight outside the house while Hiccup went to his room , both thinking the same thing..."STORMFLY!"

>"TOOTHLESS!"...and within minutes , they were air-borne .

>After clearing their heads , they landed at the cove and got off , both off them petting their dragons , who seemed to sense their rider's discomfort ."So...what're you gonna do? Hiccup?"

>"...I don't know...maybe , ...maybe we can try it ...and if the dragons get too uncomfortable ,... we stop?""That's what I thought too. This chance will probably never come again, but...I don't think I can fit in with those people."

>"Yeah right,...you'll probably be one of the popular kids and I'll be the..."Hiccup instinctively shut his mouth when he saw Astrid glare at him. It was terrifying . She almost looked pained.

>'Oh, yeah, no putting myself down.'"...We could come home during the holidays ...and we could go to the mountains during the weekends ..."

>"Yeah, so ...wanna give it a shot?""You never could turn down a challenge ."

>He teased. She smirked."I never lost one either...wonder how the others will deal with the only two sensible people in the gang leaving ?...fish legs is too quiet to keep them in check."

>Hiccup gave a small laugh, now that the decision was made, his head was clearer."Ohhhh yeah, I do not want to be my dad during that time."

Present :-

" Hey Toothless ,These pyjamas are so comfy ...and the bed is so soft . I wonder what it's made off , and the ..." .

>"HICCUP !SHUT UP AND GO TO SLEEP!"

>"...well, goodnight ,bud."

4. Welcome to Bugress

Tooth's POV:-

>The sleigh was currently overhead bugrees . I was staring at the clouds which kept us hidden , catching glimpses of the town underneath them ."Here we are."

>The sleigh landed on the roof of a simple little house . It was located a little inside the forest so I could remain a bit free when my human form wears off . Hopefully , it will last long enough to get through a week of school . I wonder if I can make some friends here . I'll have to leave once high school ends but maybe I can create some good memories while I'm here .I wonder if I'll be able to fit in ...with them.

>I clutched the hoodie which I was wearing . It wasn't mine , but whoever it belonged to gave it to me to keep me warm while I was unconscious . I only barely remember his face . Those piercing blue eyes and those Teeth...Stop it , tooth . Now is not the time to think of that .I let out a sigh . I just hope he's okay now ...wherever he was.

>I jumped off the sleigh and onto the roof before running to the edge and jumping off the side ..."TOOTH!"

>...and landing on a nearby tree branch ."Yes , auntie?"

>I asked , turned around to see her watching me with an alarmed look on her face and North watching her with an amused look on his . She calmed down and asked."Where are you going?"

>I beamed ."Since school starts tomorrow , I'm gonna look around town ."

>I stopped for a moment and took off the hoodie , revealing the top of my summer dress , and tossed it to her ."Please keep that safe in my room ."

>"Okay , be safe.""I will."

>And I climbed down the tree and took off through the forest ."TOOTH!"

>I turned around just in time to catch a wallet that was thrown at me by North."IN CASE YOU SEE SOMETHING YOU LIKE."

>"THANKS ."And I was off .

Third person's POV:-

Jack was taking a stroll in the forest beside his house . It was quite large and not many people go too deep but Jack couldn't help it . He always loved the rush he felt as he shot over roots , jumped off edges and climbed trees , jumping from branch to branch as he did so .

>He did not expect to see a little girl out there as well , dodging rocks and branches with ease as she scooted towards town .
She was grinning like an idiot and as she shot past him , not even noticing he was right above her as she did so , ...he moved to a smaller branch...and the branch snapped .

>Quick on his feet , he jumped to another branch higher up . But the girl froze as the branch fell behind her , her eyes widened with the unexplainable feeling that she wasn't alone . That , along with the branch that just barely missed her left her a bit freaked

>Her voice was low , timid and she immediately straightened up. She was a princess of a legendary race of the guardians of the memories of childhood . She was not going to be intimidated by ...Whatever was out there .
>"Is someone there?"

>She asked , her voice firm , almost commanding . Jack just blinked at how she went from scared to demanding in a matter of seconds . His curiosity was piqued and a small grin formed on his face as he cupped his hands around his mouth and with a low voice .
>"_Leave_ ..."

>Tooth froze . She looked around for any sign of another person but she couldn't find any. Could it be ...Pitch ? Has he come after her ?
>"Show yourself , Coward ."

>She screamed , her voice firm and without a trace of fear , but a hint of ...anger? Did she know someone was playing with her ? Why wasn't she scared ?
Jack tried again with a low , broken , creepy voice .

>"I ...am...the spirit of the forest ...leave now ...or ..dieeee..."

>Once again , Jack was stupidified with her reaction .
She relaxed ...and seemed confused ? The heck was wrong with this girl ?

>Tooth , on the other hand , was relieved that it was not Pitch , but also confused as to what the spirit was saying . She knew there was no 'spirit of the forest' , so that meant ...
When realisation hit her , she turned and began to walk away with a huff .

>"WHOEVER YOU ARE , GOOD-BYE !"

>She got about two feet , before a rustling of the leaves above her was heard followed by brown eyes practically launching towards her face...and stopping just in front of her .
>"Hi "

>"AHHHHHHH..."

>Tooth fell back with a shout , landing on her butt and looked up to see a brown -haired , teenage boy hanging upside down from a overhead tree branch and ...laughing at her .
>"Oh.._HA..you should have seen the look on your face ...Oh ...yeah...priceless ."

>Tooth's mouth fell open . This was the 'spirit ' ?. A stupid boy?
...who was Laughing at _Her_ .

>In one swift move , she raised herself to her feet , moved towards him as he watched ,his laugher subsiding , with narrowed eyes and a wide grin , she pulled her fist back and brought it full speed towards his face .
>"**OH SH*T!**"

>He screamed as he closed his eyes and braced himself for ... giggling?
He open one of his eyes to see her fist barely a centimetre away from his face . She lowered it , Still giggling and with a almost smug smile , she practically sang .

>"You should have seen your face ,...price-less."

>His eyes narrowed but a small grin graced his features

."Well-played ."

>Tooth blinked , as if not sure how to respond , so Jack , figuring this girl at least had a sense of humour and not having anything else to do before the torture known as 'high school' started the next day swung himself back up before jumping down in front of her

."Haven't seen you around before ,You new here?"

>Tooth blinked a bit ."Um ...yeah . I just came today ."

>Jack seemed a bit surprised at her shy tone , but smiled at her

.Tooth practically swooned over his teeth . But one thing that her aunts have told her numerous times , Do not examine strangers teeth without their permission ... But they were sooo _gorgeous_ .

>"You going to check out town then?"Tooth managed to nod .

>"Well , I'm bored and you seem like fun , so how about I show you around ?."That snapped Tooth out off her trance and she pointed a finger at him accusingly .

>"You threw a branch at me ""What ? No , it snapped as I jumped on it ."

>"And it was just a coincidence that I was right under it ?""No ! kinda ! yes ! no ! ... I would never try to hurt someone . You ran past me and I moved without looking . I'm sorry ...I just..."

>Tooth took in his panicked expression and the worry in his eyes and realised that he was telling the truth ."It's fine ."

>Jack saw that her shock and disbelief was replaced with ...a smile ?Did this girl have mood swings ?

>She frowned ."No , I don't ."

>Snap , did he say that out loud ?"Yes , you did ."

>Jack pursed his lips together to keep himself from blurting out anything else.She let out a sigh .

>"Why did you do that anyway ? Do you ...like ...scaring people ?""No ! I just ...you seemed scared then not when you asked who was there and I just ...played along . You were very interesting to watch . Normally , people would have been more scared .

>Tooth blinked .Was this guy flirting ? The aunts had warned her about boys and how they chase everyone wearing a skirt . But the mischievous , but innocent look in his eyes didn't seem to show it . Besides , she was going to have to get used to them and he seemed nice ...playful , but nice .

>"Okay , but my Aunt told me to be careful with strangers , so any dark alleys or clubs and I'm out ."He raised an eyebrow , but on noticing the smile on her face , simply gave a dramatic bow and held out his hand as if she were royalty (which technically ,she was , but he didn't know that ) .

>"The name's Jackson Benett , m'lady . Allow me to escort you around this fine town . "Tooth giggled and placed her own hand over his with a curtsy .

>"My name is Tiana , young sir and I would be delighted to have your company ..."Then she straightened up with a grin.

>"...on one condition , of course..."Jack looked up with a raised eyebrow , clearly noticing her playful tone .

>"And that is ?..."She winked .

>"Catch me if you can ."And she shot off towards town laughing.

>Jack quickly straightened up and shot after her

."CHEATER!"

5. It begins

"Today's the day , Sandy."

On a rooftop opposite the school , the guardians of childhood were standing , watching the building .

The giant bunny huffed.

"I ain't liking this . What makes ya think they'll even get along?"

"Come now, bunny , this what man in moon said to do . It'll be fine ."

"Still don't like it. I mean , they're just kids North. And none of em are that different from normal kids . KIDS WE'RE SUPPOSED TO BE PROTECTING ."

"Bunny , Toothie's older than all of us ."

A small gust of sand flew at the bickering pair .

"Ay, cept you, Sandy . What you think of this ?"

"Wanna know what I think?"

"No , Bunny , not you."

The golden guardian simply shrugged his shoulders before narrowing his eyes at the horizon . The sun was rising and that meant the day was finally underway. The large man placed his hand on both the other's shoulders .

"No matter what , we protect the children , ALL the children . . ."

Bunny 's eyes lit with determination .

"'Course, goes without saying."

North chuckled . And with that , Bunny jumped down as a tunnel formed right under him , Sandy gave a bow before flying up on a sand cloud and North took out a snow globe murmuring ...

"I wonder who protect me when Rose find out what happening?..."

"Good morning , class . Today we're having some foreigners joining us . They're not used to our culture and routines so be nice to them . They're currently being shown around campus and will join class after the first bell."

A bunch of murmurs followed . Jack was seated by the window , making sure the seat next to him was empty , hopefully , he'll get her to talk to him . Though after yesterday , it might be a bit hard , but hey! it was just a joke .

Flashback:-

Jack and Tooth were at the park .

"Come on , you gotta try this ."

"I said No . I'd like my limbs to stay attached to my body ."

"Would I let you fall?"

"Yes. yes ,you would ."

And what was Jack trying to do ?

Get Tooth to try skateboarding.

"It's just a board with wheels , if you slip , jump off."

Tooth crossed her arms and let out a huff .

"Fine , but if I break my bones , you're paying the hospital bill ."

"Alright , drama queen ."

After a few trips and scratches , Tooth managed to glide across the flat surface without falling . To celebrate , thy both went to a nearby fast food joint . Tooth insisted on paying , which was good because Jack was broke anyway .

Taking the skateboard from her , he took her to a nearby staircase and positioned her at the bottom .

"Watch this ."

She should have noticed that mischievous smirk on his face.

To put it simply , Jack pretended to loose balance and fall into the bushes and poor ,panicked Tooth ran to see a bloody headed, unconscious Jack lying as if dead .

She screamed .

Jack shot up to see her crying hysterically and rushed to show her the ketchup packet from the restaurant and assure her he was fine

She had slapped him and run off .

And now he was waiting for a chance to apologise . Seriously , he did go too far that time , but normally , kids don't react that badly with him. He actually thought that she wouldn't fall for it . Ketchup isn't very realistic blood and she knows he's a prankster ...but that horrifying scream and those tears .

He went too far .

Meanwhile , for circumstances involving two overprotective dragons and one overprotective mother , Tooth and another girl with short brown hair were talking to each other while a redheaded girl was trying to tell her mother that she would be fine by herself and didn't need babying and a blond girl and a brown-haired boy were whisper-arguing and giving strange hand signals to the sky and the bushes.

Tooth , of course , being a part of the mythical world saw the dragons and struck up a conversation with the other girl to distract her . With years of experience , she knew innocent , curious eyes filled with wonder when she saw them .

And this girl definitely had them.

"Hey , my name's Tiana ."

"My name's Rapunzel. Nice to meet you."

She replied enthusiastically . She seemed to be continuously rubbing her left hand . Probably nervous .

"So , how weird is it for you ? "

She blinked .

"What do you mean?"

"Well, you know we're all from different cultures and we're all royalty so..."

Rapunzel gave a nervous smile .

"Yeah , funny though , those three don't act very ...royal-like ."

She said pointing towards the other kids. Tooth nodded .

"Yeah , I hope we can all be friends ."

"Me too. It's so different here."

Tooth smiled . The world changes at a rapid pace . As one who's lived for thousands of years and seen the memories of millions of children , she knows how strange it must be to see it all for the first time .

"I know , but if you need any help , feel free to ask me."

Rapunzel smiled .

"Thank you."

The redhead had managed to get her mother to leave and the other two were arguing , but it seemed more playful , not serious .

"Finally , I can't believe ma mom . I mean ..."

"Alright , Merida , we get it . You got a protective mom , can we go now?"

Merida looked up to see Astrid frowning at her with a raised eyebrow and Hiccup was watching her with a slightly surprised but worried expression.

"What's yer problem?"

"Nothing . What's your problem ?"

Hiccup looked between the two hot-tempered girls and tried to intervene .

"Girls , girls ....if we can just calm..."

"SHUT UP."

"Shutting up."

Key word : _tried_.

"CHILDREN!"

All 5 pairs of eyes shot to the middle-aged woman who was rubbing her forehead .

"...I'm sure you lovely kids can ask your classmates if you need to know anything . I'll just lead you to your classroom .

"Thank you , miss."

Replied Tooth , Rapunzel gave a polite nod , Hiccup chuckled , clearly knowing that she just wanted to get rid of them and Merida and Astrid huffed and turned away from each other .

The miss walked back into the building , her fingers still rubbing her forehead .

A dark figure twirled a hooked staff in his hand as he watched two dragons fly into the forest near town . His eyes trained on the night-fury but still perceiving the nadder .

"Trained dragons ...living , breathing weapons of destruction

...trained ."

He looked down at the staff in his hands , it's was covered in ice and had black dust coating it .

"...the perfect hosts for my plan."

A dark horse made of black sand appeared near him and he spoke .

"Find out everything about the dragons and their ...trainers . I'll need them both."

6. Hello royalty

Rapunzel was a sheltered girl , ...to put it mildly . So , when teenage boys started to gather around the group who were waiting for their schedules , she had innocently acknowledged their existence ( unlike Astrid , who was rolling her eyes ) , smiled at them ( unlike Merida , who was looking at them as if they were from another planet ) and cheerfully agreed to sit with them during lunch ( unlike Tooth , who politely refused ) .

And for the life of her , she did not understand why the offer was cancelled when she told them she had a boyfriend .

Sure , she had blurted it out randomly , but the office lady had called them and Eugene told her to always mention that to any and every guy she talked to . The only alternative was that she kept wearing her engagement ring , and she didn't want to show off .

Seeing this , Astrid decided to try to help ( After a bit of whisper-arguing with Hiccup on why a girl should tell her instead of him cause he didn't want to give the wrong message ) as they walked to their first class of the day . Besides , if she was going to be hated , she better get it started before she actually became friends with them . It stung less when it's a stranger .

The entire gang had the same schedule except for certain periods of variation in the extra-curricular sections like workshop and electronics for Hiccup , arts and craft and dance for Rapunzel and Tiana , martial arts and swimming (one for easy grades and one for improving speed ) for Astrid and martial arts and archery for Merida .

Astrid's POV:-

"Hey , Rapunzel , right ?"

She faced me with a wide smile .

"Yes , what's up ?"

Uh ! too nice ,too nice ...

"Errr...Don't wanna seem rude or anything , but you do know those guys were flirting with you , right ?"

She blinked . I pursed my lips , not knowing what to say . She gave her a smile .

"Oh no , I ...they were just being nice ."

I rolled my eyes . Nice And naive . I knew Hiccup should have talked to her .

"Trust me , there's a guy back home that's just like them , I just wanted to say ...be careful . No offence , but you seem a bit too trusting ."

'And you seem too cynical' her face seemed to say , but stopped . Realisation crossed her face and she gave me a confident smile .

"Thanks , but if anything happens , I'll whack them over the head with my frying pan..."

I raised an eyebrow .

"A ...frying ...pan?..."

She took out what looked like a top quality frying pan from her bag .

"Just in case of trouble ."

I looked over the kitchen utensil in her hand and gave her an amused look before shrugging and looking ahead with a grin . Well! Stupid weapon or not , at least she has a bit of fight in her . That's more than I hoped for .

"I'm more an axe kind of girl ."

I'm pretty sure she thought I was joking.

"Why're ye carrying that with ya ?"

I turned to see Merida beside her giving her frying pan a weird look . I fought back the annoyance I felt towards her . Who shouts at her mother for caring about them? I bet her mother doesn't lock her out for the night if she missed curfew by a few seconds or didn't finish her training within one hour . She's probably a spoiled brat .

"My boyfriend made me promise I'd whack any guy that came too close for comfort ."

Merida let out a unladylike snort .

"Smart guy ya got , I prefer the good ol' bow and arrow ."

I turned to her with surprise . No way ! both of them ?

"You shoot ?"

Merida let out an indignant huff and crossed her arms .

"Course I do , I'm mighty fine at it too , ya know ? No need ta be so surprised."

I shook my head . That changes things . If she's a warrior , then being babied would be insulting . Though I have no idea what that feels like .

"I thought you guys were princesses who were supposed to be ladylike - ish ."

"Ma mom tried , but I'm a fighter , yeh . "

I grinned in approval , but Rapunzel ( that name is a mouthful ) seemed confused .

"Wait...aren't you a princess too?"

I snorted .

"Please , do I look like a princess to you ?"

"Then , how ?..."

"I thought this was a royal only thingy ..."

I raised an eyebrow in surprise.

"Really ? Well , the guy I came with's our chief 's son . I just came to keep him out of trouble ."

"That happen a lot ?"

"Oh yeah "

"Hey ! I'm not that bad !"

We turned to see Hiccup with an exasperated look on his face which quickly morphed into a deer-in-headlights expression. Tiana just looked between the two of us with a smile .

"Were you eavesdropping , Haddock ?"

"Psh, what? ...noooooo..."

I opened my mouth to reply when.

"We're here !"

Somehow , during our talk , we had walked to our classroom . The lady leading us had a look that screamed 'Finally !' .

She couldn't have lasted a hour in our village . Even if she just saved the village hero's life . I looked at my schedule ...English , great (note the sarcasm ). Hiccup peaked over my shoulder to see the paper and mumbled the same thing .

In case you didn't know , he was being sarcastic too .

Tiana's POV:-

I was glad to see Astrid managed to talk with them. I knew she was afraid of being too rude or something . I talked with Hiccup a bit as we walked behind them .

Well...more like I offered to help him if he needed it and from then on , it was a regular Q&A.

"Would you get into trouble for punching someone ?"

"Yes ."

"Why is there a basket in the conner?"

"That's a trashcan . You put trash in it."

"What's that thing on that guys head?"

"Earphones . You use them to listen to music ."

"So that's why he's moving around like he's drunk?"

"I think so..."

"Can wood get shocked ?"

"Umm...wood can't conduct electricity if that's what your asking..."

"But metal can?..."

"Yeah ..."

"What else can get shocked?"

"Um...water, ...people..."

"Woah!..what..."

_ "...chief's son..."_

Suddenly he turned his attention the girls who were ahead of us

"...came to keep him out of trouble ."

A small grin crossed his face .

"That happen a lot ?"

"Oh yeah "

"Hey ! I'm not that bad !"

He shouted , drawing their attention to him .

"Were you eavesdropping , Haddock ?"

"Psh, what? ...noooooo..."

Poor guy . I stayed out of it since those two seemed more friendly than they let on . I don't think she'll seriously hurt him .

"We're here!"

Saved by the teacher and her enthusiasm towards getting rid of us .

"Class , I would like you to welcome your new classmates..."

The teacher inside said , pointing towards us. We were still outside the class , so they couldn't see us . Rapunzel looked excited , Astrid looked like she was preparing for war , Merida seemed curious and Hiccup seemed a bit nervous .

Hey! I tend to observe people . Plus , Rapunzel and Merida had beautiful teeth .

"... Try not to corrupt them."

She added with a teasing sigh . A few laughs and 'we'll try..''s And 'no promises..' were heard . The lady who lead us here was long gone . The teacher faced us.

"Well , come on in and introduce yourselves."

End
